MORE REVENUE FRAUDS.

Irregularities in the Lumber Trade Between the British Provinces and This City-Action of the Surveyor of the Port.

Not long since the suspicious of Surveyor Cornell were aroused in regard to the lumber trade carried on between Nova Scotia and other British provinces adjacent to this port. It was reported that glaring irregularities existed, by which the revenue service was defrauded of large sams. He accordingly instructed his subordinate officials to keep a sharp lookout in this direction. The first veswhich attention was directed was the brig Irene, but the captain of the latter got patimation in advance of the proposed special examination of his cargo of lumber and hat his manifest and other ship papers properly arranged so as to fully comply with the requirements of the law, and thus was in readiness for the subsequent investigation, which of course resulted in everything being reported all the captain.

course resulted in every; hing being reported all fight.

The captain of the schooner Dresden, arriving here on the sti inst., from Shulee, Nova Scotia, with a cargo of piling and spars, was not so fortunate. Deputy Abell and Inspector Alexander, on making a thorough examination of the cargo, which was a rork of no little time and trouble, found only half the cargo on the cargo list, and this half greatly undervalued. The result was the setzing of the bargo until the matter can be properly adjudicated apon. It is now undergoing inv. stigation, but as the case stands, according to the statement of the officials named above there can hardly be otherwise than one decision, which will be confiscation, possibly of the whole cargo, and certainly of that portion not on the ship's manifest.

It is believed that this species of fraud has been carried on for a long time, and that the government is largely the loser in consequence. The lumber trade carried on between this fifty and Canada and the neighboring British provinces, as is well known, is very large, reaching many millions of dollars annually. The bulk of the dimber and manner of storage has greatly facilitated windling where parties are inclined to do it—and it is probable the most are so inclined—and this, coupled with laxness in the discharge of their duties by the government officials, or their connivance at the fraud at which many, it is presumed, would not hesitate with such a good show at not being detected, has enabled it to be agried on with bid impunity. The Surveyor has gone carnestly to work in the matter, and the probability is that in the future there will be an effectual stoppel of further frauds upon the government from this source.

NORTHWESTERN IOWA.—Northwestern Iowa is settling up fast, says the Sioux City Times:—"John S. Schmidt has returned from a trip through Chero-ge, O'Brien, Clay, Pocahontas and Buona Vista Fountles, where he has been engaged in looking up the titles of 40,000 or 60,000 acres of land for Eastern Capitalists. He reports those countles as settling up Nory fast, and looking towards Sioux City as their astropolis."
